Horn – Ben Goldscheider

Bishop's Stortford Sinfonia is back in Stansted for the opening of its 2022 – 23 season with a programme to thrill! We'll be starting the evening with the beloved Marriage of Figaro Overture by Mozart. This overture is exuberant and will start the evening off with a bang. It is perfectly paired with the Serenade in D by Ethel Smyth. The Serenade was written just over 100 years after the Marriage of Figaro, and brings a romantic excitement that audiences are sure to love. Bishop's Stortford Sinfonia is pleased to welcome Ben Goldscheider, winner of the BBC Young Musician 2016 Brass Category, as our soloist playing Mozart's Horn Concertos 3 & 4. These concertos showcase the magic of the horn and highlight the beautiful lyricism that Mozart could also achieve, offering a lovely contrast to the energy of the rest of the programme. This concert kicks off what is to be an exciting season for Bishop's Stortford Sinfonia.

About the orchestra
Founded in 2015, Bishop's Stortford Sinfonia gives Bishop's Stortford something that very few towns can board: orchestra concerts of a truly professional standard. Drawing from the core of excellent professional and semi-professional musicians living locally, the reputation of the orchestra has spread quickly, and many superb musicians now travel far and wide to join the Sinfonia for its concerts. Its members are united by their commitment to music making of the highest quality and their infectious enjoyment that they share with audiences.
